The place from Madison offers 17 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average $7.3. Nestled in Dubai, this restaurant presents a mixed bag of culinary experiences. While the service receives commendation for being friendly and efficient, the food often falls short of expectations. Patrons describe the falafel and dips as bland, with stale pita, while some menu items, like the gyros and meat combo, are deemed subpar and lacking in freshness. However, there are notable high points—a few guests highlight exceptional bites of hummus, grape leaves, and baklava, praising the flavorful offerings and inviting ambiance. Ultimately, despite its prime location and stylish decor, the inconsistency in food quality leaves diners wanting more.
