Nestled in a bustling area, this restaurant impresses with a diverse menu featuring both traditional Japanese and Korean offerings. Diners have praised the extensive vegan options, particularly the vegan spicy tuna and California rolls, which impressively mimic their non-vegan counterparts. However, experiences have varied, with some dishes, like the crab rolls and Gomaе, receiving criticism for quality and taste. Recent reviews highlight inconsistencies, including cold food and missing items in takeout orders. Despite these shortcomings, the friendly service and potential for improvement keep customers hopeful for a refined experience in the future.
