The restaurant from Cambridge offers 32 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of £4. Nestled in the heart of Cambridge, Arepa's Station offers an authentic taste of Venezuela, delighting patrons with its flavorful arepas and warm hospitality. Diners rave about the freshness and richness of the dishes, particularly the Pabellón and the beloved guasacaca sauce. While some critique minor assembly flaws in the arepas and unexpected charges for pico de gallo, the overall experience remains overwhelmingly positive. With gluten-free options available and a friendly atmosphere, Arepa's Station is a must-visit for anyone seeking genuine Venezuelan cuisine, making every bite a celebration of culture and flavor.
